

Bulletin and Newsletter Briefs

December 2008

prepared by CatholicCaregivers.com,

a program of the Friends of St. John the Caregiver (www.FSJC.org)

Caregiving is pro-life!

“Spiritual people can deal with this [caregiving] more easily because they allow Jesus to guide them in life. They see Jesus as the one in need beside them, and it becomes an act of love.”

--Father Jean Robitaille, M. Afr.

Caregiving is pro-life!

“Spiritual people can deal with this [caregiving] more easily because they allow Jesus to guide them in life. They see Jesus as the one in need beside them, and it becomes an act of love.”

--Father Jean Robitaille, M. Afr.

Caregiving is pro-life!

“What he [the judge in the parable of final judgment] asks is only this: Did you visit me when I was sick? When I was in prison? Did you feed me when I was hungry, and did you clothe me when I was naked? And so, justice is decided by charity. Thus, at the end of this Gospel we can almost say: love alone, charity alone.”

--Pope Benedict XVI,
General Audience, Nov. 19, 2008

Caregiving is pro-life!

“What he [the judge in the parable of final judgment] asks is only this: Did you visit me when I was sick? When I was in prison? Did you feed me when I was hungry, and did you clothe me when I was naked? And so, justice is decided by charity. Thus, at the end of this Gospel we can almost say: love alone, charity alone.”

--Pope Benedict XVI, General Audience, Nov. 19, 2008

www.CatholicCaregivers.com

www.YourAgingParent.com

www.FSJC.org