

Bulletin and Newsletter Briefs

October 2006

prepared by CatholicCaregivers.com,

a program of the Friends of St. John the Caregiver (www.FSJC.org)

“It takes prayer, courage and determination to stay engaged in the daily relay of care for our suffering brothers and sisters.”

--Kathy Kalina, RN, CRNH,
Hope for the Journey: Meaningful Support for the Terminally Ill
(USCCB, 2001)

Caregiving is pro-life!

“It takes prayer, courage and determination to stay engaged in the daily relay of care for our suffering brothers and sisters.”

--Kathy Kalina, RN, CRNH,
Hope for the Journey: Meaningful Support for the Terminally Ill
(USCCB, 2001)

Caregiving is pro-life!

“We commend all those engaged in every aspect of caring for the disabled, the chronically ill, and the dying. . . . In your reverence for the bodies and spirits of your brothers and sisters, you are continuing the healing ministry of Jesus.”

– Living and Dying According to the Voice of Faith: A Pastoral Letter to the Catholics of the State of Michigan (1997)

Caregiving is pro-life!

“We commend all those engaged in every aspect of caring for the disabled, the chronically ill, and the dying. . . . In your reverence for the bodies and spirits of your brothers and sisters, you are continuing the healing ministry of Jesus.”

– Living and Dying According to the Voice of Faith: A Pastoral Letter to the Catholics of the State of Michigan (1997)

Caregiving is pro-life!