

Bulletin and Newsletter Briefs

June 2007

prepared by CatholicCaregivers.com, a program of the Friends of St. John the Caregiver (www.FSJC.org)

Caregiving is pro-life!

“This caring is an avenue of grace for both the caregiver and the care recipient. Younger people learn about facing death with hope if they companion an older person on the journey of terminal illness. The spiritual benefits of these relationships are many.”

-- Archdiocese of Omaha,
Proposal for Synod Assembly
Consideration, 2004

Caregiving is pro-life!

“This caring is an avenue of grace for both the caregiver and the care recipient. Younger people learn about facing death with hope if they companion an older person on the journey of terminal illness. The spiritual benefits of these relationships are many.”

-- Archdiocese of Omaha,
Proposal for Synod Assembly Consideration, 2004

Caregiving is pro-life!

“Whatever its motives and means, direct euthanasia consists in putting an end to the lives of handicapped, sick, or dying persons. It is morally unacceptable.”

-- Catechism of the Catholic Church, No. 2277

Caregiving is pro-life!

“Whatever its motives and means, direct euthanasia consists in putting an end to the lives of handicapped, sick, or dying persons. It is morally unacceptable.”

-- Catechism of the Catholic Church, No. 2277