

Bulletin and Newsletter Briefs

April 2010

prepared by CatholicCaregivers.com,
a program of the Friends of St. John the Caregiver (www.FSJC.org)

Caregiving is pro-life!

“Without the spiritual component, I don't know what people fall back on. Faith gives you hope, no matter what's going to happen. Caregiving is God's work. It's what he calls us to do.”

--Jane Cheyne, as quoted in The Michigan Catholic

Friends of St. John the Caregiver
www.FSJC.org
1-800-392-JOHN

Caregiving is pro-life!

“Without the spiritual component, I don't know what people fall back on. Faith gives you hope, no matter what's going to happen. Caregiving is God's work. It's what he calls us to do.”

--Jane Cheyne, as quoted in The Michigan Catholic

Friends of St. John the Caregiver
www.FSJC.org 1-800-392-JOHN

Caregiving is pro-life!

“Keep in mind that the most valuable gift you can give a caregiver is time. Offer to sit with her loved one for an hour while she goes to a hair appointment or to Mass, or for a longer stretch so she can go on a day trip or to a social event. Time away from caregiving allows caregivers an opportunity to recharge their batteries.”

--Lisa M. Petsche

Friends of St. John the Caregiver
www.FSJC.org
1-800-392-JOHN

Caregiving is pro-life!

“Keep in mind that the most valuable gift you can give a caregiver is time. Offer to sit with her loved one for an hour while she goes to a hair appointment or to Mass, or for a longer stretch so she can go on a day trip or to a social event. Time away from caregiving allows caregivers an opportunity to recharge their batteries.”

--Lisa M. Petsche

Friends of St. John the Caregiver
www.FSJC.org 1-800-392-JOHN