

Bulletin and Newsletter Briefs

August 2011

prepared by CatholicCaregivers.com, a program of the Friends of St. John the Caregiver (www.FSJC.org)

Caregiving is pro-life!

“The sick person who feels surrounded by a loving human and Christian presence does not give way to depression and anguish as would be the case if one were left to suffer and die alone and wanting to be done with life.”

--Pontifical Council
for Pastoral Assistance’s “Charter for Health Care Workers”.(No. 149)

Friends of St. John the Caregiver
www.FSJC.org
1-800-392-JOHN

Caregiving is pro-life!

“The sick person who feels surrounded by a loving human and Christian presence does not give way to depression and anguish as would be the case if one were left to suffer and die alone and wanting to be done with life.”

--Pontifical Council for Pastoral Assistance’s “Charter for Health Care Workers”.(No. 149)

Friends of St. John the Caregiver
www.FSJC.org 1-800-392-JOHN

Caregiving is pro-life!

“Your loving care is a precious help to the old. Your clear witness is a help and encouragement to us all.”

--Pope John Paul II
to caregivers;
Perth, Australia; 1986

Friends of St. John the Caregiver
www.FSJC.org
1-800-392-JOHN

Caregiving is pro-life!

“Your loving care is a precious help to the old. Your clear witness is a help and encouragement to us all.”

--Pope John Paul II to caregivers;
Perth, Australia; 1986

Friends of St. John the Caregiver
www.FSJC.org 1-800-392-JOHN